Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons (NPT)

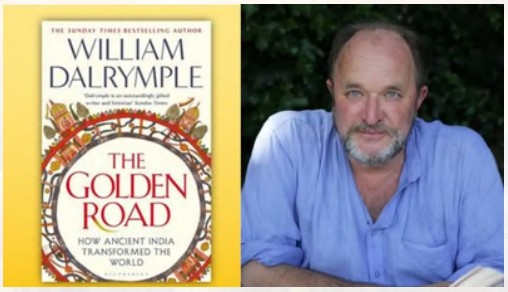

- The Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons (NPT) is an international instrument aimed at preventing the spread of nuclear weapons and weapons technology, promoting cooperation in the peaceful uses of nuclear energy.
- Signed: July 1, 1968.
- Entered into Force: March 5, 1970.
- Recognized Nuclear-Weapon States (NWS): The treaty recognizes five states that had detonated a nuclear explosive device prior to January 1, 1967:
- United States
- Russia (formerly USSR)
- United Kingdom
- France
- China
- Non-Signatories: India, Pakistan, and Israel have never signed the treaty and possess nuclear weapons.
- South Sudan: The world's youngest nation has yet to join the treaty.
- The International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA) serves as the "nuclear watchdog" for the NPT.

GOVERNMENT BILLS

Transgender Persons (Protection of Rights) Amendment Bill, 2026

- The Transgender Persons (Protection of Rights) Amendment Bill, 2026 was introduced in Lok Sabha on March 13, 2026.
- The Bill seeks to amend the Transgender Persons (Protection of Rights) Act, 2019. The Act provides for rights of transgender persons and their welfare.
- Definition of a transgender person: The Act defines a transgender person as a person whose gender does not match with the gender assigned at birth, and specifies certain persons who are included. The Bill removes this definition. It instead lists categories of persons to be included. The Bill also states that it will not include or will never have included persons with different sexual orientations and self-perceived sexual identities.
- Recognition of transgender identity: Under the Act, a transgender person may apply to the District Magistrate for issuing a certificate of identity as a transgender person. The Bill adds that the District Magistrate will issue the certificate after examining the recommendation of a designated medical board. The board will be headed by a Chief Medical Officer or a Deputy Chief Medical Officer. The District Magistrate may take assistance from other medical experts. The Bill adds that transgender persons will be entitled to change the first name in the birth certificate and other official documents based on the certificate of identity.

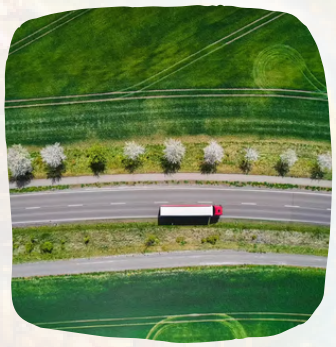

GOVERNMENT BILLS

- Change in gender: The Act provides that a revised certificate of identity may be obtained where a transgender person undergoes surgery to change gender. The Bill instead mandates the person to obtain a revised certificate. The Bill adds that the concerned medical institution must furnish information regarding the gender change surgery to the District Magistrate.
- Offences and penalties: Under the Act, offences against transgender persons include:
  - (i) compelling or enticing into forced or bonded labour
  - (ii) denying the right of passage or obstructing use of public place
  - (iii) forcing or causing to leave household, village, or other places of residence, and
  - (iv) harm or injury.
- These are punishable with imprisonment between six months and two years, and a fine. The Bill adds certain offences. Kidnapping and causing grievous hurt or severe injury in order to force a person to assume a transgender identity will carry:
- (i) imprisonment between 10 years and life and a minimum fine of two lakh rupees if the victim is an adult, and
- (ii) imprisonment for life and a fine of at least five lakh rupees if the victim is a child.
