Q1. What is the highest forum for discussion and debate on public issues and national policy in India?

NTPC UG CBT-01 2025-26 (09 May, 2026 (4:30 PM - 6:00 PM)

A. Supreme Court
B. Parliament
C. President's Office
D. Election Commission

- Parliament is the highest forum for discussion and debate on public issues and national policy
- Supreme Court is a judicial body
  - It reviews laws and delivers justice
  - It does not debate public issues or national policy

- Union Parliament comes under Part V of the Constitution
- Parliamentary form of government is borrowed from Britain (UK)
  - Also called the Westminster model of government
  - Reason: the British Parliament is located at Westminster
- Judicial review is borrowed from the USA
  - It first appeared in the Marbury vs Madison case
  - This same question has already been asked in NTPC

Q2. Parliament, the legislative organ of the Union government, is mentioned in which part of the Constitution of India?

NTPC UG CBT-01 2025-26 (14 Jun, 2026 (4:30 PM - 6:00 PM)

A. Part VIII
B. Part VII
C. Part V
D. Part V

- Union government and Parliament are covered in Part V (Articles 52 to 151)
- Part VII does not exist; it was repealed by the 7th Amendment
- Part VI deals with the States

- Part V has 5 chapters:
  - Chapter 1: Union Executive - Articles 52-78
  - Chapter 2: Parliament - Articles 79-122
  - Chapter 3: Ordinance (legislative power of the President) - Article 123
  - Chapter 4: Supreme Court - Articles 124-147
  - Chapter 5: CAG - Articles 148-151

- State Executive (equivalents):
  - Governor in place of President
  - No Vice Governor exists
  - Chief Minister in place of Prime Minister
  - Council of Ministers stays the same
  - Advocate General in place of Attorney General

- Side note on citizenship (taught earlier): Section 6 deals with citizenship by naturalisation
  - Schedules 1 to 4: 1st and 4th are repealed
  - 2nd Schedule - oath
  - 3rd Schedule - citizenship by naturalisation

- Union Executive consists of:
  - President
  - Vice President
  - Prime Minister and the Council of Ministers
  - Attorney General

Q3. According to Article 79 of the Indian Constitution, the Parliament of India consists of:

RRB NTPC UG CBT-01 2024 (13 Aug, 2025 Shift 1)

A. only Lok Sabha and Rajya Sabha
B. Prime Minister, Lok Sabha, and Rajya Sabha
C. President, Lok Sabha, and Rajya Sabha
D. President, Vice President, and Prime Minister

- Article 79 gives the composition of Parliament
- Parliament = President + Lok Sabha + Rajya Sabha
- President is an integral part of Parliament
  - No bill can become an Act without the President's assent

- Composition articles:
  - Article 79 – Parliament
  - Article 80 – Rajya Sabha
  - Article 81 – Lok Sabha
- First sitting of both Lok Sabha and Rajya Sabha: 13 May 1952

- Lok Sabha
  - Also called House of the People, Lower House, First Chamber

- Rajya Sabha
  - Also called Council of States, Permanent House, House of Elders, Federal Chamber, Second Chamber

Q4. Which of the following is the primary basis for allocating seats in the Rajya Sabha among various States and Union Territories in India?

RRB NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2024 (11 Jun, 2025 Shift 2)

A. Literacy rate of the population
B. Population of each state or union territory
C. Economic contribution of each state
D. Geographical area of each state

- Rajya Sabha seats are given according to the population of each state and UT
  - Uttar Pradesh gets 31 seats
  - Small states like Mizoram and Sikkim get only 1 seat each

- Union Territories in the Rajya Sabha:
  - UTs with representation: Delhi, Puducherry, Jammu & Kashmir
  - The remaining UTs have no representation (very small population, no assembly)
- Rajya Sabha elections are indirect
  - System: Proportional Representation with Single Transferable Vote
  - Elected by the MLAs (members of the Legislative Assembly)

Q5. Which Schedule of the Indian Constitution deals with the allocation of seats in the Rajya Sabha to States and Union Territories?

NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2025-26 (24 Mar, 2026 Shift 3)

A. Fourth Schedule
B. Second Schedule
C. First Schedule
D. Sixth Schedule

- Article 80 + Fourth Schedule = allocation of Rajya Sabha seats

- Other schedules in the options:
  - First Schedule – names and territorial jurisdiction of States and UTs
  - Second Schedule – emoluments (allowances etc.)
  - Sixth Schedule – administration of tribal areas of Assam, Tripura, Meghalaya, Mizoram
- Changes in the First and Fourth Schedules:
  - Such changes come through Article 2 or 3
  - By Article 4, they are not treated as a constitutional amendment (no special majority needed)
  - They can be done by simple majority

Q6. As per Article 80 of the Constitution of India, which of the following indicates the number of members appointed by the President to the Council of States?

NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2025-26 (22 Mar, 2026 Shift 2)

A. Twenty
B. Twelve
C. Ten
D. Fourteen

- Maximum strength of Rajya Sabha = 250
  - 238 elected
  - 12 nominated by the President
- Fields for nomination (LSAS): Literature, Science, Art, Social Service

- Borrowed from Ireland:
  - Trick: take R, E, D from IreLAND – RED
  - R – Nomination in Rajya Sabha
  - E – Election procedure of the President
  - D – DPSP
- Borrowed from South Africa:
  - Election procedure of Rajya Sabha members
  - Constitutional amendment procedure (Article 368)

Q7. Which of the following constitutional mechanisms ensures political representation for Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes in the Indian Parliament?

RRB NTPC UG CBT-01 2024 (28 Aug, 2025 Shift 2)

A. Article 15 and 16
B. Article 341 and 342
C. Article 330 and 332
D. Article 338 and 339

- Article 330 – seats reserved for SC and ST in the Lok Sabha
- Article 332 – seats reserved for SC and ST in the State Legislative Assemblies
- This reservation has been extended for the next 10 years by the 104th Amendment

- Article 15 (no discrimination)
  - Clause 1 – State shall not discriminate only on grounds of religion, race, caste, sex, place of birth
    - The word "only" matters: discrimination on any other ground is not barred
  - Clause 2 – access to public places cannot be restricted on these grounds
  - Clause 3 – special provisions for women and children
  - Clause 4 – special provisions for socially and educationally backward classes
  - Clause 5 – special provisions in educational institutions for socially and educationally backward classes
  - Clause 6 – 10% EWS reservation

- Article 16 (equality of opportunity in public employment)
  - Clause 1 – equality of opportunity in public employment
  - Clause 2 – no discrimination on grounds of religion, race, caste, sex, descent, place of birth, residence
  - Clause 3 – residence can be made an eligibility criterion
  - Clause 4 – special provisions for socially and educationally backward classes
    - 4A – reservation in promotion
    - 4B – carry-forward rule: SC/ST vacancies not filled this year are carried forward to later years
  - Clause 5 – eligibility criteria can be fixed for religious institutions (member of that religion)
  - Clause 6 – EWS reservation

- OBC reservation timeline
  - Mandal Commission = Second Backward Classes Commission, set up in 1979
  - Recommendations implemented by the V.P. Singh government in 1990
  - Indira Sawhney case (1992) = known as the Mandal case
    - Supreme Court upheld the Mandal Commission recommendation
    - Court held EWS reservation and reservation in promotion invalid
    - Parliament later amended the Constitution and added Article 16(4A), which allows reservation in promotion

Q8. Which special representation in the Lok Sabha and State Assemblies was discontinued by the 104th Constitutional Amendment Act, 2020?

RRB NTPC UG CBT-01 2024 (28 Aug, 2025 Shift 1)

A. Reservation for Women
B. SC/ST Reservation
C. Anglo-Indian Reservation
D. OBC Reservation

- Same amendment extended SC/ST reservation for 10 years
  - SC/ST: Articles 330 and 332
  - Anglo-Indians (now ended): Articles 331 and 333

- 104th Amendment ended the Anglo-Indian reservation
  - Article 331 - President used to nominate 2 Anglo-Indians to the Lok Sabha
  - Article 333 - Governor used to nominate 1 Anglo-Indian to the Legislative Assembly

Q9. What percentage of seats are reserved for women under the 106th Amendment Act?

RRB NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2024 (05 Jun, 2025 Shift 2)

A. 10%
B. 25%
C. 33%
D. 50%

- 106th Amendment - 33% (one-third) seats reserved for women
- It will apply from the 2029 Lok Sabha elections
- It will run for 15 years
- At present, women's reservation exists only in local bodies (1/3)

- Article 243D - Panchayats
  - Reservation for SC/ST in proportion to their population
  - 1/3 for women
- Article 243T - Municipalities (same reservation idea)
- Similar-sounding pairs for Panchayat / Municipality (D-T style memory trick):
  - 243D / 243T - reservation
  - 243G / 243W - powers, authority and responsibilities
  - 243I / 243Y - State Finance Commission
  - 243J / 243Z - audit (J for "jaanch")
- Article 243S - Ward Committees

- Duration
  - 243E - duration of Panchayat: 5 years (E for five)
  - 243U - duration of Municipality: 5 years (E for five)

Q10. In accordance with Article 84 of the Constitution of India, which of the following is the minimum age a person must meet to qualify for membership of the House of the People?

NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2025-26 (22 Mar, 2026 Shift 3)

A. Thirty years
B. Eighteen years
C. Twenty-one years
D. Twenty-five years

- Article 84 - qualifications for membership
- Must be a citizen of India
- Minimum age
  - Lok Sabha: 25 years
  - Rajya Sabha: 30 years

Rajya Sabha is called the House of Elders because of the higher minimum age (30)

Q11. Which action attracts disqualification of an independent MP under the Anti-Defection Law introduced by the 52nd Constitutional Amendment Act, 1985?

NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2025-26 (17 Mar, 2026 Shift 2)

A. Supporting a coalition government
B. Remaining neutral during debates
C. Joining any political party after their election
D. Voting differently from party whip

- Anti-defection law: Tenth Schedule, added by the 52nd Amendment
- Independent member: disqualified if he joins any political party at any time
  - The 6-month rule does not apply to independents

- Cases of disqualification under the anti-defection law:
  - A member leaves the party he was elected from and joins another party
  - A member goes against the party whip
  - An independent member joins any party (at any time)
  - A nominated member joins a party after 6 months
    - Joining within 6 months – no disqualification

- Whip
  - Not the literal whip; a whip is a person
  - Every party has one in the House who directs members how and when to vote
- Decision on defection is taken by the presiding officer (Speaker in Lok Sabha)
  - It is final, but subject to judicial review
  - Laid down in the Kihoto Hollohan vs Zachillhu case, 1992
- Disqualification of MPs
  - Article 102 – grounds of disqualification (for example holding an office of profit, not being a citizen of India)
  - Article 103 – the President decides, after consulting the Election Commission of India
  - Representation of the People Act, 1951 – Section 8 deals with disqualification
    - Jail term of 2 years or more – disqualified
    - Can also be barred for 6 years

Q12. Which of the following Schedules was added to the Constitution of India, to provide for the disqualification of the members of Parliament and the state legislatures on the ground of defection?

NTPC UG CBT-01 2025-26 (17 Jun, 2026 (4:30 PM – 6:00 PM)

A. Schedule XI
B. Schedule XII
C. Schedule IX
D. Schedule X

- Tenth Schedule = anti-defection law, added by the 52nd Amendment

- Eleventh Schedule
  - Rural local government (Panchayats)
  - Added by the 73rd Amendment (passed 1992, came into force 24 April 1993)
  - 29 functional items
- Twelfth Schedule
  - Municipalities
  - 18 functional items
- Ninth Schedule – land-related provisions

Q13. Who is responsible for preparing the inaugural speech of the President of India in Indian Parliament?

RRB NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2024 (21 Jun, 2025 Shift 1)

A. The Council of Ministers
B. Lok Sabha Speaker
C. The President personally
D. The Leader of the Opposition

- Article 87 – Special Address of the President
- Article 86 – right of the President to address either House or send a message to the House
- The Motion of Thanks is passed separately in each House

- The speech is also called the Motion of Thanks (popular name)
  - In the Constitution it is the Special Address of the President
- It is written by the Council of Ministers / Cabinet; the President reads it word by word
- The President addresses both Houses jointly on two occasions:
  - First session after each general election
  - First session of each financial year (1 April to 31 March)
- Contents: policies of the government, what it achieved last year, and what it plans ahead
- The address must be passed (thanked) by the House
  - If it is not passed in the Lok Sabha, the government falls (no majority)
  - If it fails in the Rajya Sabha, no problem – Rajya Sabha is a permanent House, not subject to dissolution

Q14. Which of the following options correctly describes the Indian President's power to summon the Parliament?

RRB NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2024 (23 Jun, 2025 Shift 3)

A. The President may summon the Parliament only once every calendar year.
B. The President may summon the Parliament at least twice a year.
C. The President can only summon the Parliament after consulting Prime Minister.
D. The President may summon the Parliament at his/her discretion.

- President summons Parliament at least twice a year
  - Reason: Parliament has 3 sessions, and the gap between two sessions (recess) can be at most 6 months

- President summons on the advice of the Council of Ministers (the whole council, not only the Prime Minister)
  - Not at the President's own discretion

Q15. In India, how many sessions of Parliament are held in a year?

RRB NTPC UG CBT-01 2024 (09 Sept, 2025 Shift 3)

A. Three
B. One
C. Six
D. Two

- 3 sessions, of which at least 2 must be held
  - Budget Session – first session of the year; starts in February; the longest
  - Monsoon Session – around July
  - Winter Session – around mid-November; the shortest
- Recess between two sessions cannot be more than 6 months

Q16. Which judicial doctrine allows laws promoting DPSPs to be protected from being struck down for violating certain Fundamental Rights, as long as they are interpreted harmoniously?

NTPC UG CBT-01 2025-26 (19 Jun, 2026 (4:30 PM – 6:00 PM)

A. Doctrine of Basic Structure
B. Doctrine of Severability
C. Doctrine of Protective Discrimination
D. Doctrine of Harmonious Construction

- Harmonious Construction – a law promoting DPSP is saved from being struck down for violating certain Fundamental Rights, if both can be read together harmoniously

- Doctrine of Severability (associated with Article 13)
  - Only the invalid / inconsistent part of the law is removed
  - The whole law is not struck down

- Doctrine of Eclipse
  - Deals with pre-Constitution laws

- Doctrine of Basic Structure – from the Kesavananda Bharati case (1973): Parliament can amend Fundamental Rights without disturbing the basic structure of the Constitution

Q17. Which Article states that the quorum to constitute a meeting of either House of Parliament shall be one-tenth of the total number of members?

NTPC UG CBT-01 2025-26 (17 Jun, 2026 (9:00 AM - 10:30 AM)

A. Article 100
B. Article 96
C. Article 99
D. Article 102

- Article 100 - quorum = 1/10 (10%) of total members of either House
  - Clause 3 gives the quorum
  - Clause 1 deals with voting in the House
- Quorum = minimum members required to carry on the proceedings of the House

- Article 102 - disqualification of MPs
- Article 96 - Speaker / Deputy Speaker of Lok Sabha cannot preside over the House while a removal resolution against them is under consideration

- The Constitution also lets Parliament add further grounds of disqualification by law

Q18. Under which article can the president summon, prorogue, or dissolve either house of Parliament?

NTPC UG CBT-01 2025-26 (17 Jun, 2026 (4:30 PM - 6:00 PM)

A. Article 87
B. Article 79
C. Article 108
D. Article 85

- Article 85 - President summons, prorogues and dissolves
  - Summon - calling the House
  - Prorogue - ending the session (सत्रावसान)
  - Dissolve - ending the whole House (a strong tool)
    - Only the Lok Sabha can be dissolved
    - Rajya Sabha is not subject to dissolution
- All three are done by the President of India

- Adjournment
  - Power lies with the presiding officer (Speaker in Lok Sabha, Chairperson in Rajya Sabha)
  - Chairperson of Rajya Sabha = 15th Vice President (C.P. Radhakrishnan)
  - 18th Speaker = Om Birla
  - If quorum is missing (Article 100(3)), the presiding officer can adjourn the House
  - Adjournment sine die - adjourned without naming a day to meet again; used when the

- Nearby articles:
  - Article 83 - duration of both Houses
    - Lok Sabha: 5 years
    - Rajya Sabha: no fixed duration (permanent House)
    - 6 years is the term of a member, not of the House
    - 1/3 members retire every 2 years, so the House is never empty at once
  - Article 84 - qualifications
  - Article 87 - special address of the President

Q19. Who among the following administers oath of Pro Tem Speaker during initial sitting of newly elected Lok Sabha?

NTPC UG CBT-01 2025-26 (15 Jun, 2026 (9:00 AM - 10:30 AM)

A. President of India
B. Cabinet Secretary
C. Vice President of India
D. Chief Justice of India

- Article 99 - oath or affirmation of members
- President appoints a temporary Speaker - the Pro Tem Speaker
  - The President himself administers the oath to the Pro Tem Speaker
  - The Pro Tem Speaker then gives oath to all members
- After that, the House elects its permanent Speaker
- Pro Tem Speaker is a temporary Speaker (usually the senior-most member)

- Example: Bhartruhari Mahtab gave oath to members of the 18th Lok Sabha
- Then the House elected Om Birla as Speaker by simple majority

Q20. For which of the given bills can the President of India summon a joint sitting of both Houses of Parliament?

1. Ordinary Bill
2. Money Bill
3. Constitutional Amendment Bill

RRB NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2024 (18 Jun, 2025 Shift 3)

A. 1 and 2 only
B. 1, 2 and 3
C. 1 only
D. 2 and 3 only

- Ordinary Bill – Article 107
  - 3 readings in each House
    - First reading – the bill is presented by the member who brings it
    - Second reading – discussion and detailed amendments
    - Third reading – voting to pass or not
  - After passing, it goes to the other House, which also has 3 stages

- No joint sitting provision exists for State legislatures

- Joint sitting is possible only for an Ordinary Bill
  - Not for a Money Bill
    - Reason: Lok Sabha has the extra power in money bills
  - Not for a Constitutional Amendment Bill
    - Reason: the Constitution should not be amended by force through a joint sitting

- Veto – Article 111 gives the President assent or veto
  - Assent = positive power; veto = negative power
  - Three types of veto in India:
    - Absolute veto (पूर्ण वीटो) – bill is rejected outright
    - Suspensive veto (निलंबनकारी वीटो) – bill is returned
    - Pocket veto – no response at all
  - Qualified veto – belongs to the US President, not India
  - Constitutional Amendment Bill – the President has no veto; he must give assent
    - Added by the 24th Amendment, 1971

Q21. Which type of legislative bills can be introduced in the Lok Sabha only after obtaining the prior approval of the President of India?

RRB NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2024 (24 Jun, 2025 Shift 1)

A. Private Bills
B. Ordinary Bills
C. Public Bills
D. Money Bills

- Another bill that needs the President's prior recommendation: a bill under Article 3 (changes in an existing State – boundaries, area increase/ decrease, name change)
  - Reason: the President sends it to the State Legislature to get its opinion
  - The 5th Amendment allowed the President to fix a time limit for the State Legislature to respond
- Private Bill
  - A type of Ordinary Bill
  - Brought by a private member, not by a minister
  - Private member = a member who holds no portfolio (not a minister)

- Money Bill – introduced only on the prior recommendation of the President
  - Reason: it relates to money, so there should be no delay
- Introduced only in the Lok Sabha
- Article 109 – procedure
- Article 110 – definition

- Rajya Sabha has only recommendatory power (cannot amend)
  - Time limit: 14 days
  - If not returned within 14 days, the bill is treated as passed by both Houses in the form passed by Lok Sabha

- President must give assent; suspensive veto cannot be used
  - Reason: the bill was brought on his own prior recommendation

- Speaker of Lok Sabha certifies whether a bill is a Money Bill
  - The decision is subject to judicial review
  - Seen in the K.S. Puttaswamy case (Aadhaar case / Right to Privacy case)
  - Concern: the government might label ordinary bills as money bills to bypass the Rajya Sabha

Q22. Article _____ describes the procedure for joint sitting of both Houses of the Parliament in certain cases.

NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2025-26 (16 Mar, 2026 Shift 3)

A. Article 115
B. Article 104
C. Article 108
D. Article 94

- Article 108 – joint sitting (संयुक्त बैठक)
- Needed when there is a deadlock over an ordinary bill
  - The second House rejects the bill, or does not respond for 6 months, or the Houses disagree on the changes
  - Joint sitting is the way to break the deadlock
- Procedure borrowed from Australia
  - Trick AUSTRALIA:
    - S – joint Sitting
    - TRA – Trade and Commerce
    - L – List (Concurrent List)
- Held only 3 times so far:
  - Prevention of Terrorism Act, 2002
  - Dowry Prohibition Bill, 1959
  - Banking Service Commission Bill, 1977
- Works as per the Rules of Lok Sabha
  - Bill needs only simple majority
- Presided by the Speaker of Lok Sabha
  - If absent, the Deputy Speaker
  - If there is no Deputy Speaker (none since 2019), the Deputy Chairman of Rajya Sabha (Harivansh Narayan Singh)
  - Chairman of Rajya Sabha (Vice President) never presides, as he is not a member of either House

- Article ranges to remember:
  - Article 107 – ordinary bill
  - Article 108 – joint sitting
  - Article 109 – money bill procedure
  - Article 110 – money bill definition
  - Article 115 – grants (supplementary grants, excess grants, etc.)
  - Article 104 – penalty of Rs 500 per day for a person who sits or votes in the House without being qualified or without taking oath
  - Article 94 – vacation, resignation and removal of Speaker / Deputy Speaker of Lok Sabha
  - Articles 89-92 – officers of Rajya Sabha (Chairman, Deputy Chairman)
  - Articles 93-96 – officers of Lok Sabha (Speaker, Deputy Speaker)
  - Article 97 – salaries and allowances of all four
  - Tip: remembering the article ranges helps in such questions

- Resignation
  - Speaker resigns to the Deputy Speaker; Deputy Speaker resigns to the Speaker (like President and Vice President)
  - At present there is no Deputy Speaker (since 2019), so the resignation would go to the Lok Sabha Secretariat

- Election date:
  - Speaker – fixed by the President
  - Deputy Speaker – fixed by the Speaker
- The Speaker is the ex-officio Chairperson of:
  - Business Advisory Committee
  - Rules Committee
  - General Purposes Committee

Q23. Which of the following Articles of the Indian Constitution defines the money bill?

RRB NTPC UG CBT-01 2024 (11 Aug, 2025 Shift 3)

A. Article 112
B. Article 110
C. Article 117
D. Article 105

- Article 110 – definition of Money Bill
- Article 109 – procedure of Money Bill

- Article 112 – Annual Financial Statement (popularly called the Budget)
  - The word "Budget" is not written anywhere in the Constitution
  - It is laid in the name of the President; the Finance Minister presents it on his behalf
  - Covers one financial year (1 April to 31 March)
  - Presented and discussed in both Houses, but voting only in Lok Sabha

- Article 114 – Appropriation Bill (विनियोग विधेयक)
  - Government cannot withdraw even Rs 1 from the Consolidated Fund of India without passing it
  - Consolidated Fund of India – Article 266
- Article 117 – Finance Bill

Q24. According to Article 246 of the Indian Constitution, parliament has exclusive powers to make lawson subjects mentioned in which of the following lists?

RRB NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2024 (17 Jun, 2025 Shift 1)

A. State List
B. Local List
C. Union List
D. Concurrent List

- Article 246 – Parliament has exclusive power on the Union List (List I)

- Concurrent List (List III) – both Parliament and State Legislature can make laws
  - If both make a law, the Union law normally prevails
  - A State law can prevail only in one case:
    - The State bill was reserved by the Governor for the President (Article 200)
    - The President gave assent
  - Even then, Parliament can override it by passing a new law later
  - This is Article 254, the Doctrine of Repugnancy

Q25. What did the Supreme Court decide in the Kesavananda Bharati case (1973) about the powers of Parliament to amend the Constitution of India?

RRB NTPC UG CBT-01 2024 (22 Aug, 2025 Shift 1)

A. The President has ultimate authority to approve or reject amendments independently.
B. The Parliament cannot amend any part of the Constitution under any circumstances.
C. Parliament can amend Constitution, but cannot destroy its basic structure.
D. Parliament has unlimited power to amend any part of the Constitution.

- Kesavananda Bharati case, 1973
  - Parliament can amend the Constitution, even Fundamental Rights
  - But without disturbing the Basic Structure
- Basic Structure is not written anywhere in the Constitution
  - It originated in this case and developed further through later cases

Q26. Under what conditions can the Parliament legislate on matters in the State List according to constitutional provisions?

RRB NTPC UG CBT-01 2024 (29 Aug, 2025 Shift 2)

A. When the Rajya Sabha passes a resolution.
B. During a national emergency declared under Article 352.
C. If the President signs a proclamation without Parliament's involvement.
D. If a Governor requests it due to a financial emergency in the state.

- Article 249 – Rajya Sabha passes a resolution in the national interest by special majority; Parliament can then make laws on State List subjects
  - Reason for giving this power to Rajya Sabha: it represents the States

- During a National Emergency (declared under Article 352), Parliament can also legislate on the State List
  - This is done through Article 250

- Both options (Rajya Sabha resolution and national emergency) are actually correct
  - If only one can be ticked, choose the Rajya Sabha resolution

Q27. The Indian Constitution empowers the Parliament to make laws on matters in the State List under which circumstances?

1. Rajya Sabha resolution
2. National Emergency
3. States request
4. Implement international agreements
5. Discretion of PM

NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2025-26 (18 Mar, 2026 Shift 3)

A. 2, 3, 4, and 5 only
B. 1, 2, 4, and 5 only
C. 1, 2, 3, and 5 only
D. 1, 2, 3, and 4 only

- Article 352 – National Emergency is declared under it
- Article 356 – President's Rule
- Next lecture topics: Emergency, PM and Council of Ministers (Union Executive)

- Parliament can legislate on the State List in 5 situations:
  - Article 249 – Rajya Sabha resolution (special majority) in the national interest
    - Law made is valid for 1 year
  - Article 250 – National Emergency
    - Law lasts till the emergency ends and, after that, for a maximum of 6 months
  - Article 252 – 2 or more States request Parliament to make a law
    - The law applies only to those States
  - Article 253 – to enforce an international treaty / convention India has joined
  - Article 356 – President's Rule
- Discretion of PM is not a condition

Q29. Which of the following Committees is a Standing Committee of the Parliament?

RRB NTPC UG CBT-01 2024 (22 Aug, 2025 Shift 1)

A. Delimitation Commission
B. Joint Parliamentary Committee on 2G Spectrum
C. Select Committee on a Bill
D. Public Accounts Committee

- Public Accounts Committee is a permanent (Standing) committee
- Delimitation Commission is not a parliamentary committee

- Delimitation Commission – Article 82
  - President appoints it after every census, according to rules framed by Parliament
  - Courts cannot interfere in the rules
  - Purpose: readjustment of constituencies
  - Formed 4 times: 1952 (after 1951 census), 1963, 1973, 2002
- Freeze on delimitation
  - 42nd Amendment froze it till 2000
  - 84th Amendment (2001) froze it till 2026
  - After 2026, a commission can be set up after the first census
  - No commission was formed after the 2011 census because of the freeze
  - The 2002 commission was only for internal readjustment, not for changing the number of seats
  - 87th Amendment – internal readjustment as per the 2001 census

NTPC UG CBT-01 2025-26 (13 Jun, 2026 (4:30 PM - 6:00 PM)

A. To examine bills and policies in detail
B. To supervise elections across the country
C. To appoint ministers to executive offices
D. To amend provisions of the Constitution

- Main job of a parliamentary committee: examining bills and policies

- Wrong options:
  - Elections are supervised by the Election Commission of India
  - Ministers are appointed by the President (on the Prime Minister's advice)
  - Constitutional amendment is done by Parliament

Q32. Which level of government generally legislates on matters such as police, public health and agriculture in India?

RRB NTPC UG CBT-01 2024 (12 Aug, 2025 Shift 1)

A. Union Government
B. State Legislatures
C. Inter-State Council
D. Local Bodies

- Police, public health and agriculture are in the State List (List II)
- So the State Legislature makes laws on them

- Part VI of the Constitution deals with the States (State Legislature)
  - Part V has 5 chapters
  - Part VI has 6 chapters
  - Articles 152 to 237
  - Chapter 1: Definition - Article 152
    - "State" here means UP, MP, Bihar etc., unlike Part III (Fundamental Rights) and Part IV (DPSP) where it meant something else
  - Chapter 2: Executive - Articles 153-167
  - Chapter 3: State Legislature - Articles 168-212
  - Chapter 4: Legislative power of the Governor (Ordinance) - Article 213
  - Chapter 5: High Courts - Articles 214-231
  - Chapter 6: Subordinate Courts - Articles 233-237
  - There is no CAG for States

Q33. What is the maximum strength of members in a State Legislative Assembly as per the Constitution of India?

RRB NTPC UG CBT-01 2024 (14 Aug, 2025 Shift 2)

A. 475
B. 450
C. 435
D. 500

- Legislative Assembly: maximum 500, minimum 60 (Article 170)
  - Lok Sabha: maximum 550; no minimum limit
  - Exceptions (small states): Sikkim 32, Goa 40, Mizoram 40, Nagaland 60, Arunachal Pradesh 60, Puducherry (UT) 30
    - Most of these states are seen in Article 371 (special provisions)

NTPC UG CBT-01 2025-26 (07 May, 2026 (9:00 AM - 10:30 AM)

A. Lakshadweep
B. Ladakh
C. National Capital Territory of Delhi
D. Andaman and Nicobar Islands

- Only 3 UTs have a Legislative Assembly: Delhi, Puducherry, Jammu & Kashmir
- Article 239AA gives Delhi its Legislative Assembly
  - Added by the 69th Amendment, 1991
  - It made the UT of Delhi the National Capital Territory of Delhi (NCT)
  - Control of Centre: Public Order, Police and Land

Q35. Which type(s) of Legislatures can a state have under the Indian Constitution?

NTPC UG CBT-01 2025-26 (07 May, 2026 (4:30 PM - 6:00 PM)

A. Either a single-house or two-house systems
B. Only single-house systems
C. Only two-house systems
D. Only the Parliament can decide

- Single house - Legislative Assembly (Vidhan Sabha)
- Two houses - Legislative Assembly (Vidhan Sabha) + Legislative Council (Vidhan Parishad)
- Legislative Council is the upper house of a State, like Rajya Sabha at the Centre
  - Only 6 States have a bicameral (two-house) legislature (Trick - KABUTM): Karnataka, Andhra Pradesh, Bihar, Uttar Pradesh, Telangana, Maharashtra
    - Tamil Nadu does not have one
    - Every state has a Legislative Assembly; the Council exists only in these 6

Q36. Which of these Union Territories has a legislative assembly and council of ministers?

NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2025-26 (19 Mar, 2026 Shift 3)

A. Dadra and Nagar Haveli
B. Puducherry
C. Daman and Diu
D. Andaman and Nicobar Islands

- UTs with a Legislative Assembly and Council of Ministers: Delhi, Puducherry, Jammu & Kashmir
  - Amendments that created UTs:
    - Goa, Daman and Diu - 12th Amendment, 1962
    - Puducherry - 14th Amendment, 1962
    - Dadra and Nagar Haveli - 10th Amendment, 1961
    - Goa later became a State by the 56th Amendment, 1987
  - No Union Territory of India has a Legislative Council.

Q37. What is the term of an elected MLA in Indian State Legislatures, unless dissolved prematurely?

NTPC UG CBT-01 2025-26 (13 Jun, 2026 (4:30 PM - 6:00 PM)

A. 5 years
B. 4 years
C. 6 years
D. 3 years

- Term of an MLA = term of the Legislative Assembly = 5 years (unless dissolved early)

- The term can be extended by 1 year (at a time) during a National Emergency
  - After the emergency ends, elections must be held within 6 months
- 42nd Amendment (Indira Gandhi's time) raised the Lok Sabha term from 5 to 6 years
  - 44th Amendment brought it back to 5 years

Q38. The Vidhan Sabha is also known as the:

NTPC UG CBT-01 2025-26 (20 Jun, 2026 (4:30 PM - 6:00 PM)

A. Legislative Assembly
B. Legislative Council
C. State Parliament
D. Council of Ministers

- Vidhan Sabha = Legislative Assembly
- Vidhan Parishad = Legislative Council

Q39. Which of the following is a feature of the State Legislative Council (Vidhan Parishad) in India?

RRB NTPC UG CBT-01 2024 (28 Aug, 2025 Shift 3)

A. It can be dissolved like the Legislative Assembly
B. The people directly elect their members
C. It has a fixed term of five years
D. It is a permanent body and cannot be dissolved

- Article 169 - creation and abolition of the Legislative Council
  - Done by Parliament
  - Needs only simple majority; no constitutional amendment is required
- Article 170 - composition of the Legislative Assembly
- Article 171 - composition of the Legislative Council

- Council is the upper house, like Rajya Sabha
  - Cannot be dissolved
  - Members are not directly elected (indirect election)
  - The House has no fixed term
  - 1/3 members retire every 2 years
- It cannot be dissolved, but it can be abolished

Q40. According to Article 171 of the Constitution of India, the total membership of a State's Legislative Council shall not surpass which proportion of Assembly members?

NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2025-26 (24 Mar, 2026 Shift 1)

A. One-half
B. Two-thirds
C. One-fourth
D. One-third

- Article 171 - Council strength cannot exceed 1/3 of the Assembly strength
- Minimum strength of the Council = 40

- Actual composition of the Council is decided by Parliament
  - 1/3 elected by MLAs
  - 1/3 elected by members of local bodies (like municipalities)
  - Elected by graduates (1/12) (at least 3 years of standing)
  - Elected by teachers (1/12) (at least 3 years of experience)
  - 1/6 nominated by the Governor
    - Fields: Literature, Science, Art, Social Service (same fields as the President's nomination in Rajya Sabha)
    - Plus Cooperative Societies

- Cooperative Societies – 97th Amendment
  - Article 43B
  - Article 19(1)(c)
  - Part IX-B (Articles 243ZH to 243ZT)

Q41. What modification was made to Article 171(1) of the Indian Constitution by the seventh amendment?

NTPC UG CBT-01 2025-26 (14 Jun, 2026 (9:00 AM - 10:30 AM)

A. Term "one-fourth" was replaced with "one-half"
B. Term "one-third" was replaced with "one-fourth"
C. Term "one-fourth" was replaced with "one-third"
D. Term "one-half" was replaced with "one-fourth"

- 7th Amendment changed one-fourth to one-third in Article 171(1)
- Present limit is 1/3, so earlier it must have been smaller (1/4)

Q42. What must State legislators do under Article 188 of the Constitution of India before taking their seats for the first time in state assembly?

RRB NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2024 (12 Jun, 2025 Shift 3)

A. Declare assets
B. Get CM's approval
C. Background check
D. Take oath or affirmation

- Article 188 – oath or affirmation of State legislators, before taking their seat
- It matches Article 99 (oath of members of Parliament)

- Trick to move from Part V to Part VI (Articles 89 to 111: add 89; from Article 112 onwards: add 90)
  - First swap the words:
    - President becomes Governor
    - Prime Minister becomes Chief Minister
    - Council of Ministers stays the same
    - Lok Sabha becomes Vidhan Sabha
    - Rajya Sabha becomes Vidhan Parishad

- Examples:
  - 99 + 89 = 188 (oath)
  - 87 + 89 = 176 (Special Address of the Governor)
  - 102 + 89 = 191 (disqualification)
  - 81 + 89 = 170 (composition of Assembly)
  - 112 + 90 = 202 (state budget)
  - 123 + 90 = 213 (ordinance)
- Be careful: the order of articles is reversed in some places

Q43. To be eligible for membership of a State Legislature, a candidate must meet which of the following qualifications in the Representation of the People Act, 1951?

RRB NTPC UG CBT-01 2024 (02 Sept, 2025 Shift 3)

A. Be an elector (voter) in any State assembly constituency
B. Pay income tax in the State
C. Have at least a graduate degree
D. Be a permanent resident of the State for 15 years

- Candidate must be a registered voter (elector) in a constituency of that State
  - Same rule for the Centre: registered as an elector
- Not required: paying income tax, graduate degree, permanent residence for 15 years

- This condition was removed for Rajya Sabha in 2003
  - Example: S. Jaishankar – registered voter in Delhi, elected to Rajya Sabha from Gujarat
  - Example: Manmohan Singh – Rajya Sabha member from Assam
  - For all other cases the condition still applies

Q44. Mr. ABCD wants to become a member of the Legislative Assembly. What is the minimum age prescribed in the Constitution of India so that he becomes a member?

NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2025-26 (16 Mar, 2026 Shift 3)

A. No Minimum age is prescribed in the Constitution
B. 21 years
C. 25 years
D. 35 years

- Minimum age: 25 years for MLA and for Lok Sabha MP
- Rajya Sabha MP: 30 years
  - This is why Rajya Sabha is called the House of Elders

Q45. Who presides over the sessions of the Vidhan Sabha in a State?

RRB NTPC UG CBT-01 2024 (19 Aug, 2025 Shift 3)

A. The Governor of the State
B. The Chief Minister of the State
C. The Speaker elected by members
D. The Deputy Speaker by rotation

- Speaker is the presiding officer of the Legislative Assembly
- Elected by the members of the Assembly

Q46. As per the Constitution of India, Article 182 deals with which of the following?

NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2025-26 (27 Mar, 2026 Shift 1)

A. Composition of State Legislative Assemblies
B. Disqualification for membership
C. Special address by the Governor
D. Chairman and Deputy Chairman of State Legislative Council

- Article 182 = 93 + 89
- In Part V, 93 is about Speaker and Deputy Speaker (Lok Sabha); 89 is about Chairman and Deputy Chairman (Rajya Sabha)
- The order is reversed in Part VI
  - Legislative Assembly officers come first
  - Legislative Council officers come after
  - Reason: the Legislative Council is not mandatory in every State

- So Article 182 = Chairman and Deputy Chairman of the Legislative Council
- Other options:
- Article 176 is the Governor's special address (87 + 89)
- Article 191 is disqualification (102 + 89); Article 170 is composition of Assembly

Q47. How does the Vidhan Parishad elect its chairman?

NTPC UG CBT-01 2025-26 (18 Jun, 2026 (9:00 AM – 10:30 AM))

A. Appointed by the President
B. Elected by members of the Vidhan Parishad
C. Elected by members of the Lok Sabha
D. Nominated by the Governor

- Vidhan Parishad members elect their own Chairman and Deputy Chairman
- Same as: Lok Sabha elects its Speaker / Deputy Speaker; Vidhan Sabha does the same

- Rajya Sabha is different
  - Deputy Chairman is elected by the members
  - Chairman is not elected by Rajya Sabha
  - Vice President is the ex-officio Chairman (Articles 64 and 89)
    - Vice President is elected by all members of Parliament (elected and nominated, both Houses)
  - Example: the election of C.P. Radhakrishnan

Q48. Which of the following is the Chief Minister of a state in India primarily responsible for?

RRB NTPC UG CBT-01 2024 (07 Aug, 2025 Shift 1)

A. President of India
B. Supreme Court
C. State Legislative Assembly
D. Governor of the State

- Individual responsibility is towards the Governor
- Collective responsibility is towards the State Legislative Assembly

Q49. In Indian State governments, to whom is the State Council of Ministers collectively responsible?

RRB NTPC UG CBT-01 2024 (12 Aug, 2025 Shift 3)

A. The Governor of the State
B. Council of States
C. State Legislative Assembly
D. Chief Justice of the concerned State

- Collective responsibility of the State Council of Ministers is to the Legislative Assembly

Q50. Which of the following financial powers is not vested in the Governor of a State?

RRB NTPC UG CBT-01 2024 (08 Sept, 2025 Shift 2)

A. To assent to Money Bills
B. To administer the State Contingency Fund
C. Presenting the state budget to the Legislature
D. Approving taxes independently

- Governor powers:
  - Gives assent to Money Bills
  - Administers the State Contingency Fund
  - State budget is presented in the Governor's name (Article 202)
- Governor does not approve taxes independently

- Union Contingency Fund is with the President
- State Contingency Fund is with the Governor
- Article 202 = 112 + 90 (like Article 112, where the budget is in the name of the President)

Q51. The governor can dissolve Vidhan Sabha before the completion of its term on the advice of the _____.

NTPC UG CBT-01 2025-26 (20 Jun, 2026 (12:45 PM - 2:15 PM)

A. High Court of the State
B. Election Commission
C. Chief Minister
D. President

- Governor acts on the advice of the Council of Ministers, headed by the Chief Minister
- At the Centre: Prime Minister heads the council and the President acts on its advice
- Details will be taught in the next lecture

- Ordinance
  - President: Article 123
  - Governor: Article 213 (123 + 90)
  - Can be issued when one House or both Houses are not in session
    - Reason: a bill becomes an Act only when passed by both Houses, so even one House not sitting is enough
  - Must be approved within 6 weeks, else it ends automatically

- D.C. Wadhwa case
  - The Bihar Governor kept re-promulgating the same ordinances again and again
  - Court called it a fraud on the Constitution
