Q1. Which Article of the Indian Constitution empowers Parliament to form new states or alter their boundaries?

NTPC UG CBT-01 2025-26 (16 Jun, 2026 (9:00 AM - 10:30 AM)

A. Article 6
B. Article 3
C. Article 5
D. Article 2

- Part I of the Constitution (Union and its Territory) covers Articles 1 to 4

- Article 3: Parliament can form new States and change existing States
- Changes under Article 3 include
  - Increasing or decreasing the area of a State
  - Changing the name of a State
  - Dividing (bifurcating) a State
  - Merging two States

- Article 2 is different: it deals with admission or establishment of new States, i.e. territory that is not yet part of India

- Article 371: special provisions for some States
  - 371 itself: Maharashtra and Gujarat
  - Trick: "Nam Aasma GK", in this order
  - N -> 371A Nagaland
  - A -> 371B Assam
  - M -> 371C Manipur
  - A -> 371D Andhra Pradesh
  - A - > 371E Andhra Pradesh (university)
  - S -> 371F Sikkim
  - M -> 371G Mizoram
  - A -> 371H Arunachal Pradesh
  - G -> 371I Goa
  - K -> 371J Karnataka
  - Talk of adding Ladakh under Article 371 exists, but nothing has been given yet

- Procedure under Article 3
  - A bill needs the President's prior recommendation
  - The President refers the bill to the State Legislature concerned for its opinion
  - The State's opinion is not binding on Parliament
  - The 5th Amendment allows the President to fix a time limit for the State to give its opinion
  - Changes are made by Parliament, not by the State

- Examples of Article 3
  - Year 2000: Uttarakhand from UP, Chhattisgarh from MP, Jharkhand from Bihar
  - Telangana from Andhra Pradesh: 2 June 2014
  - Latest example named by the teacher: Kerala renamed Keralam

Q2. What type of majority is required to pass laws under Articles 2 and 3, as per Article 4(2) in Indian parliament?

RRB NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2024 (12 Jun, 2025 Shift 2)

A. State ratification
B. Two thirds majority
C. Simple majority
D. Special majority

- Article 4(2): laws under Articles 2 and 3 are not constitutional amendments under Article 368
- So they are passed by a simple majority in Parliament

- Simple majority = majority of members present and voting (more than half)

- Article 368 allows only 2 types of amendment
  - By special majority
  - By special majority + ratification by at least half of the States (simple majority in State Legislatures)

Q3. Which of the following provisions are covered under Article 4 of the Constitution of India?

RRB NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2024 (23 Jun, 2025 Shift 2)

A. Emergency Provisions
B. Fundamental Rights
C. Financial Powers
D. Laws for reorganisation of states

- Article 4: laws made under Articles 2 and 3 (reorganisation of States) also change Schedule 1 and Schedule 4
- These changes also need only a simple majority

- Schedule 1: names and territorial jurisdiction of States and Union Territories
  - Changes when a State is renamed or its area changes

- Schedule 4: allocation of seats in Rajya Sabha
  - Seats are given according to population
  - Election is indirect, by proportional representation and single transferable vote
  - Example: UP has 31 seats, Sikkim has 1
  - When Telangana was formed, it needed seats and Andhra Pradesh's seats were reduced

- Other options are in other parts
  - Emergency provisions: Part XVIII
  - Fundamental Rights: Part III

Q4. Which union territory was added to India by the Fourteenth Amendment Act, 1962?

RRB NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2024 (18 Jun, 2025 Shift 3)

A. Goa
B. Daman and Diu
C. Lakshadweep
D. Puducherry

- Puducherry was made a Union Territory by the 14th Amendment, 1962
- Puducherry was under the French

- Amendments for Union Territories
  - Dadra and Nagar Haveli: 10th Amendment
  - Goa, Daman and Diu: 12th Amendment (made UT together)
  - Goa became a State by the 56th Amendment, 1987
  - Trick: Goa, Daman, Diu = 12; Dadra = two before (10); Puducherry = two after (14)

- Portuguese areas: Goa, Daman, Diu, Dadra and Nagar Haveli
  - Portuguese were the first Europeans to come and the last to leave
  - Vasco da Gama arrived in 1498
  - Operation Vijay, 1961, removed them

- Sikkim
  - Associate State: 35th Amendment, 1974, which added Article 2A
  - Full Statehood: 36th Amendment, 1975, ending the Chogyal dynasty

- Goa has a Uniform Civil Code
  - It is the old Portuguese code, from before independence
  - Uttarakhand was the first State after independence to implement the UCC fully (Article 44)

- Linguistic reorganisation of States
  - Andhra Pradesh: first State formed on a language basis, in 1953
    - Potti Sriramulu died on a fast unto death
    - Fully formed in 1956 (foundation day 1 November)
  - Fazl Ali Commission (States Reorganisation Commission)
    - Members: Fazl Ali (chairman), H.N. Kunzru, K.M. Panikkar
    - Led to the States Reorganisation Act, 1956
    - It ended the Part A, B, C, D classification of States
    - It created 14 States and 6 Union Territories
  - Earlier commissions, 1948: Dhar Commission and JVP Commission
    - Both said States should be formed on administrative convenience, not language
    - JVP: Jawaharlal Nehru, Vallabhbhai Patel, Pattabhi Sitaramayya

Q5. As of November 2025, Article 1 of the Indian Constitution classifies Indian territory into how many distinct categories under Constitutional provisions?

NTPC UG CBT-01 2025-26 (09 May, 2026 (9:00 AM - 10:30 AM)

A. Four
B. Three
C. Two
D. Five

- Article 1: "India, that is Bharat, shall be a Union of States"
- It names 3 categories of Indian territory
  - States
  - Union Territories
  - Territories that may be acquired in future
- Article 1 tells 2 things: the type of polity and the territory of India

- Type of polity
  - Ambedkar said India is a federation, but not like the US federation
  - India is an indestructible Union of destructible States
  - States can be broken, merged and their boundaries altered
  - States have no right to secede from the Union
  - The word "Federation" is not used anywhere in the Constitution

- Federal features: bicameral legislature, rigid constitution

Q6. The Land Boundary Agreement with Bangladesh was constitutionalized through which Constitutional Amendment?

NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2025-26 (24 Mar, 2026 Shift 3)

A. Ninety-Seventh Amendment
B. Ninety-Eighth Amendment
C. One Hundredth Amendment
D. One Hundred and First Amendment

- 100th Amendment: the Land Boundary Agreement with Bangladesh
- Territory can be taken by simple majority (Article 2), but giving territory needs a constitutional amendment
- About 100 enclaves were to be given to Bangladesh (actual: 111) and 51 received (teacher said 55)

- Berubari Union case
  - Nehru-Noon Agreement: Nehru and the Pakistani PM Noon agreed to give Berubari Union (West Bengal) to Pakistan
  - That area is now in Bangladesh, which was East Pakistan until 1971
  - 1960: the Supreme Court said territory can be taken by simple majority but giving it needs an amendment
  - So the 9th Amendment was passed

- Other amendments linked to this topic
  - 97th: cooperative societies, Article 43B, added Part IXB
  - 101st: GST
  - 102nd: gave constitutional status to the National Commission for Backward Classes
  - 103rd: 10% EWS reservation
  - 104th: ended Anglo-Indian nomination
  - President nominated 2 members in Lok Sabha
  - Governor nominated 1 member in the Legislative Assembly
  - Also extended SC/ST reservation in Lok Sabha and Assemblies by 10 years
  - 106th: Nari Shakti Vandan Adhiniyam: 33% seats for women in Lok Sabha and Legislative Assemblies

Q7. Which Articles in the Constitution of India deal with citizenship at the time of its commencement?

NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2025-26 (17 Mar, 2026 Shift 3)

A. Articles 12 to 18
B. Articles 1 to 4
C. Articles 5 to 11
D. Articles 14 to 24

- Part II (Articles 5 to 11) deals with citizenship
- Articles 5 to 10 apply only to the commencement of the Constitution, 26 January 1950
- Citizenship after 26 January 1950 is governed by the Citizenship Act, 1955

- What each Article covers
  - Article 5: citizenship at commencement
  - Article 6: migrants from Pakistan to India
  - Article 7: migrants to Pakistan who came back
  - Article 8: persons of Indian origin living outside India
  - Article 9: voluntarily taking foreign citizenship
  - Article 10: continuance of citizenship rights
    - A person once a citizen need not prove citizenship again and again; the rights are not taken away
  - Article 11: Parliament can make laws on citizenship
- Articles 12 to 35 are Part III (Fundamental Rights), not citizenship

Q8. What happens when an Indian citizen renounces their citizenship?

RRB NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2024 (06 Jun, 2025 Shift 1)

A. They become a foreign diplomat
B. Nothing changes.
C. They lose their Indian citizenship
D. They are fined.

- India follows single citizenship (dual citizenship is not allowed)
- So a person who renounces Indian citizenship loses it
- Single citizenship is borrowed from the UK

- 3 ways to lose citizenship (Sections 8, 9, 10 of the Citizenship Act, 1955)
  - Renunciation (Section 8): giving up citizenship voluntarily
  - Termination (Section 9): citizenship ends because the person acquired citizenship of another country
  - Deprivation (Section 10): government takes it away
    - Registration or naturalisation obtained by fraud, or false documents
    - Acting against the interests of the country, or helping an enemy country
- Other features borrowed from the UK
  - Bicameral legislature
  - Parliamentary form of government (Westminster model)
  - First-past-the-post system
  - Martial law
  - 5 writs

Q9. Where can people of Indian origin living abroad apply for Indian citizenship under Article 8?

RRB NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2024 (16 Jun, 2025 Shift 1)

A. Indian Embassy in Delhi only
B. Indian Embassy at their country of living
C. Supreme Court
D. State government office

- Article 8: persons of Indian origin living outside India can register at the Indian embassy or consulate in the country where they live
- They do not need to come to Delhi
- They do not apply to the Supreme Court

Q10. Which of the following Articles of the Indian Constitution empowers Parliament to make laws relating to the acquisition and termination of the Indian Citizenship?

RRB NTPC UG CBT-01 2024 (02 Sept, 2025 Shift 3)

A. Article 12
B. Article 10
C. Article 7
D. Article 11

- Article 12 defines State (it is in Part III)
  - Parliament
  - State Legislature
  - Union Government
  - State Government
  - Local bodies
  - Any government-affiliated body
- Article 36 (DPSP) uses the same definition as Article 12

- Article 11: Parliament can make laws on citizenship
- The State Legislature cannot, because citizenship is a Union List subject (Seventh Schedule)

Q11. Under Article 5 of the Indian Constitution, which of the following is NOT required for a person to be considered a citizen at the commencement of the Constitution?

RRB NTPC UG CBT-01 2024 (03 Sept, 2025 Shift 3)

A. Holding an Indian passport
B. Having at least one parent born in India
C. Having domicile in the territory of India
D. Being born in India

- Article 5: citizenship by birth at commencement
  - Born in India
  - Domicile in the territory of India
  - At least one parent born in India
- An Indian passport is not required; a person without a passport is still a citizen

Q12. A person who migrated from Pakistan after 19 July 1948 could become an Indian citizen, only if:

RRB NTPC UG CBT-01 2024 (04 Sept, 2025 Shift 2)

A. he was registered by an officer of the Dominion of India
B. he was a resident of Pakistan in 1948
C. he took an oath of allegiance
D. he was born in India before 1947

- Article 6: migrants from Pakistan to India
- Cut-off date: 19 July 1948
  - Came before it: citizen
  - Came after it: must be registered (take a permit) from an officer of the Dominion of India

Q13. Article 6 deals with persons who migrated to India from

RRB NTPC UG CBT-01 2024 (29 Aug, 2025 Shift 1)

A. Bangladesh
B. Sri Lanka
C. Pakistan
D. Nepal

- Article 6 deals with persons who migrated to India from Pakistan

- Article 7: persons who went from India to Pakistan and then returned
  - Cut-off date: 1 March 1947
  - Came back after it: need a permit from a government officer
- Trick: Article 6 = 19 July 1948; Article 7 = 1 March 1947

Q14. Which Article of the Indian Constitution states that a person who had voluntarily acquired the citizenship of a foreign State shall NOT be considered a citizen of India at commencement?

RRB NTPC UG CBT-01 2024 (28 Aug, 2025 Shift 1)

A. Article 9
B. Article 10
C. Article 12
D. Article 11

- Article 9: a person who voluntarily acquired foreign citizenship is not an Indian citizen at commencement
- Article 12 defines State

Q15. Which principle of citizenship did India start following more strictly after the 2003 Amendment?

RRB NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2024 (10 Jun, 2025 Shift 2)

A. Jus soli (by birth)
B. Jus sanguinis (by blood)
C. Dual citizenship
D. Universal citizenship

- Jus sanguinis = citizenship by blood (through parents)
- After the 2003 Amendment, at least one parent must be an Indian citizen and the other must not be an illegal migrant

- Jus soli = citizenship by birth on Indian soil (born within India's territory)
  - Earlier, birth in India alone made a person a citizen, whatever the parents' status
  - The shift from jus soli to jus sanguinis began in 1987

- The 2003 Amendment also bars an illegal migrant from getting citizenship by naturalisation or registration
- Citizenship Act, 1955: 5 ways to acquire, 3 ways to lose citizenship

Q16. How can a foreigner who has lived in India for 12 years acquire Indian citizenship?

RRB NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2024 (11 Jun, 2025 Shift 1)

A. By registration
B. By naturalisation
C. By birth
D. By descent

- Naturalisation: for a pure foreigner with no Indian link (no parent or grandparent from India)
- Needs 12 years of residence in India
  - Of the previous 14 years, 12 years in total
  - The last 1 year before applying must be spent fully in India (11 + 1)

- 5 ways to acquire citizenship, in order of Sections 3, 4, 5, 6, 7
  - Birth (Section 3): by jus soli or jus sanguinis
  - Descent (Section 4): born outside India, with at least one Indian parent
    - Register at an Indian consulate within 1 year
    - At 18, the child must choose one country; dual citizenship is not allowed
  - Registration (Section 5): a foreigner of Indian origin (parent or grandparent from India)
    - Must live in India for 7 years
  - Naturalisation (Section 6): see above
  - Incorporation of territory (Section 7): when India acquires a territory, the government notifies who becomes a citizen
    - It is not automatic

Q17. How many religious communities are covered under the 2019 Citizenship Amendment Act?

RRB NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2024 (13 Jun, 2025 Shift 1)

A. 5
B. 3
C. 7
D. 6

- CAA 2019 covers 6 communities
  - Hindu
  - Sikh
  - Parsi
  - Chri stian
  - Buddhist
  - Jain
- They get naturalisation with a shorter residence of 6 years instead of 12

- Applies to people from 3 countries: Pakistan, Afghanistan, Bangladesh
- The 2019 amendment is the latest amendment to the Citizenship Act, 1955; it added Section 6B
- Reason: these communities faced persecution in these Islamic countries

Q18. Which agreement is linked to the Citizenship (Amendment) Act, 1985?

RRB NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2024 (09 Jun, 2025 Shift 2)

A. Shimla Agreement
B. Indo-Sri Lanka Pact
C. Assam Accord
D. Kashmir Agreement

- The Citizenship (Amendment) Act, 1985 added Section 6A to the Citizenship Act, 1955
- Section 6A implements the Assam Accord

- Cut-off dates under the Assam Accord (for people who came from Bangladesh, earlier East Pakistan)
  - Before 1 March 1966: legal citizen
  - From 1 March 1966 to 1971: must prove their status
  - After 1971: illegal migrant

- National Register of Citizens (NRC) was used to implement the Accord
  - Between 2013 and 2019 lakhs of people were declared illegal migrants

Q19. Which of the following documents are NOT required under CAA 2019 to apply for Indian citizenship?

RRB NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2024 (16 Jun, 2025 Shift 2)

A. Passport and Visa
B. Birth Certificate
C. Aadhaar Card
D. Voter ID

- Passport and Visa are the documents not required
- The teacher said the question has no clear logic, so it is answered by elimination
- A visa is needed to enter another country; a passport is issued by the person's own country

Q20. Which of the following communities was NOT included for fast-track citizenship under Citizenship Amendment Act (CAA) of 2019?

RRB NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2024 (16 Jun, 2025 Shift 3)

A. Sikh
B. Christian
C. Hindu
D. Muslims

- Muslims are not included in CAA 2019
- The 3 countries covered are Islamic countries, and the Act is meant for communities said to have faced persecution there

- Muslims opposed CAA, and also opposed it together with the NRC

Q21. What was the cutoff date for migrants to be eligible under the Citizenship (Amendment) Act, 2019 (CAA)?

RRB NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2024 (19 Jun, 2025 Shift 3)

A. December 31, 2014
B. August 15, 1947
C. January 26, 1950
D. March 31, 2020

- Migrants must have entered India before 31 December 2014

Q22. What was the main change introduced by the 2015 Amendment to the Citizenship Act?

RRB NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2024 (21 Jun, 2025 Shift 1)

A. Merged PIO and OCI card schemes
B. Abolished Overseas Citizenship
C. Introduced Dual Citizenship
D. Created a new visa category for tourists

- In 2015, PIO (Person of Indian Origin card) was merged with OCI (Overseas Citizen of India card)
- PIO gave fewer benefits; OCI gave more

- PIO/OCI holders are people of Indian origin living abroad
  - They are not Indian citizens
  - No need to take a visa again and again; they can come any time
  - They cannot buy agricultural land (they can buy other land)
  - They cannot contest elections or vote

Q23. If the Government of India revokes the citizenship of an individual for acting against the interests of the country, which constitutional or statutory provision empowers it to do so?

NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2025-26 (18 Mar, 2026 Shift 1)

A. Section 6A of the Citizenship Act, 1955
B. Article 11 of the Constitution
C. Section 10 of the Citizenship Act, 1955
D. Article 5 of the Constitution

Q24. Which Amendment of the Citizenship Act introduced the provision that an illegal migrant cannot acquire citizenship by naturalisation or registration?

RRB NTPC UG CBT-01 2024 (22 Aug, 2025 Shift 3)

A. 2015 Amendment
B. 1986 Amendment
C. 2005 Amendment
D. 2003 Amendment

Q25. According to the Citizenship Act, how many years must a person ordinarily reside in India to apply for citizenship by naturalisation under general conditions?

RRB NTPC UG CBT-01 2024 (11 Aug, 2025 Shift 2)

A. 5 years
B. 7 years
C. 12 years
D. 10 years

Q26. What condition must be fulfilled by a person born outside India after December 3, 2004, to be considered an Indian citizen by descent?

NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2025-26 (19 Mar, 2026 Shift 2)

A. Both parents must be Indian citizens.
B. They must reside in India for at least 5 years.
C. They must renounce any other nationality.
D. They must reside in India for 10 years.

Q27. Hindu, Sikh, Buddhist, Jain, Parsi, and Christian citizens of which of the following nations are eligible to receive Indian citizenship under CAA, 2019, if they entered on or before Dec 31, 2014?

NTPC UG CBT-01 2025-26 (07 May, 2026 (12:45 PM - 2:15 PM)

A. Afghanistan, Bangladesh, and Pakistan
B. Bhutan, Bangladesh, and Maldives
C. Pakistan, Myanmar, and Nepal
D. Afghanistan, Sri Lanka, and Bangladesh

Q28. Prior to 1992, what was the status of Local Governments in India?

RRB NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2024 (21 Jun, 2025 Shift 2)

A. Autonomous self-governance
B. Constitutional status
C. Statutory status under State Law
D. Directly controlled by Central Government

- Before 1992, local governments had no constitutional status
- They had statutory status under State laws (created by laws of the State)

- Early Panchayati Raj
  - 2 October 1959: first introduced in Nagaur district, Rajasthan (by the State's own choice)
  - Andhra Pradesh was the second State
  - Article 40 (DPSP) directs the State to set up panchayats; it is non-justiciable, so it was not compulsory
- 73rd and 74th Amendments (passed 1992) gave constitutional status to local bodies
  - 73rd: rural local bodies (Panchayats); added Part IX, Articles 243 to 243O
  - 74th: urban local bodies (Municipalities); see Q50
- Implemented on 24 April 1993; 24 April is celebrated as Panchayati Raj Day

Q29. What is the primary benefit of having local self-government institutions like Panchayats in India?

RRB NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2024 (18 Jun, 2025 Shift 2)

A. They are closest to the people and understand local problems
B. They replace the entire administrative framework of the State
C. They solely focus on revenue collection.
D. They provide direct access to national policy-making.

- Panchayats are closest to the people and understand local problems

NITTO Trick:
- Extreme keywords (only, all, solely, never, none)
- Options B and C use extreme statements and are wrong
- Be careful with extreme words, but first apply logic and knowledge; use the extreme-word trick later
- Do not mark an option wrong only because it has an extreme word

Q30. Following the provisions of the 73rd Constitutional Amendment 1992, how frequently are the members of the Gram Sabha expected to meet in a year?

RRB NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2024 (18 Jun, 2025 Shift 1)

A. Every week
B. At least twice in a year
C. Once every five years
D. Once a month

- The Gram Sabha must meet at least twice a year
- The Gram Sabha is provided in Article 243A

Q31. Overall, the Panchayati Raj system in India is designed to promote:

RRB NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2024 (18 Jun, 2025 Shift 1)

A. economic austerity across the country for people's betterment
B. central control over local areas across the country
C. democratic governance and empowerment at the grassroots level
D. international funding for local projects, ensuring development

- Aim of Panchayati Raj: democratic governance and empowerment at the grassroots (village) level

NITTO Trick:
- Option C is the most complete and positive statement; the others are extreme or wrong

Q32. In the three-tier structure of the Panchayati Raj system in India, which body is elected at the grassroots level?

RRB NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2024 (23 Jun, 2025 Shift 1)

A. Panchayat Samiti
B. Gram Panchayat
C. Zila Parishad
D. Block Samiti

- Gram Panchayat is the body at the grassroots (village) level
- The other tiers are at the intermediate and district levels

Q33. In the context of the Panchayati Raj system in India, what does the term 'Village Panchayat' refer to?

RRB NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2024 (12 Jun, 2025 Shift 1)

A. A district-level administrative body
B. A block level committee
C. An urban municipal corporation
D. Local government at the village level

- Village Panchayat is another name for Gram Panchayat: local government at the village level

Q34. Which of the following correctly represents the three levels/tiers in the Panchayati Raj system in India?

RRB NTPC Graduation CBT-01 2024 (14 Jun, 2025 Shift 1)

A. Gram Sabha, Municipal Council, Cantonment Board
B. Gram Panchayat, Block Assemblies, State Assembly
C. Village Panchayat, Municipal Corporation, Zilla Parishad
D. Village Panchayat, Block Samiti, Zilla Parishad

- Article 243B: constitution of Panchayats in 3 tiers
  - Village level: Gram Panchayat (also called Village Panchayat)
  - Intermediate level: Panchayat Samiti (also called Block Samiti; same body)
  - District level: Zila Parishad
- Municipal Corporation, Municipal Council and Cantonment Board are urban bodies, not Panchayats

- Article 243C: composition of Panchayats
  - All seats are filled by direct election
  - Chairperson at the intermediate and district levels: indirect election
  - At the village level: direct or indirect, both possible (not very important)

Q35. When did the Balwant Rai Mehta Committee submit its report related to the Panchayati Raj System?

NTPC UG CBT-01 2025-26 (17 Jun, 2026 (12:45 PM - 2:15 PM)

A. 1958
B. 1956
C. 1957
D. 1962

- Balwant Rai Mehta Committee: report submitted in 1957
- It recommended the three-tier Panchayati Raj system, which was then adopted

- Other committees on Panchayats
  - Ashok Mehta Committee, 1977: recommended a two-tier system (not adopted)
  - L.M. Singhvi Committee
  - Gadgil Committee

Q36. What is the minimum age to contest in Panchayat elections as per Article 243F?

RRB NTPC UG CBT-01 2024 (11 Aug, 2025 Shift 1)

A. 25 years
B. 18 years
C. 30 years
D. 21 years

- Article 243F: minimum age to contest Panchayat elections is 21 years
- A person is not disqualified just for being below 25 years

- Trick: F = Fail = disqualification for membership
- The State Legislature decides the grounds of disqualification

Q37. How are the one-third reserved seats for women distributed across different categories in local bodies?

RRB NTPC UG CBT-01 2024 (11 Aug, 2025 Shift 2)

A. Only one-third of general seats are reserved for women.
B. One-third of all seats, including reserved SC/ST/OBC, are for women.
C. One-third reservation applies only to leadership positions.
D. One-third reservation applies only to rural Panchayats.

- One-third of all seats, including seats reserved for SC/ST/OBC, are reserved for women
- So women's reservation also runs inside the SC/ST/OBC quota
- It applies to all positions, not only leadership

Q38. The reservation of seats in Panchayats for SCs/STs and women comes under which Article?

RRB NTPC UG CBT-01 2024 (14 Aug, 2025 Shift 2)

A. Article 243E
B. Article 243A
C. Article 243D
D. Article 243B

- Article 243D: reservation of seats
  - SC/ST: in proportion to their population
  - Women: one-third of seats

- Trick → E is the 5th letter: Article 243E deals with duration (5 years)

A. Creation of Lok Adalats at Panchayat level
B. Elections within six months of dissolution of a Panchayat
C. Inclusion of Panchayati Raj in the Union List
D. Provision for direct funding from the Union government

- Article 243E: duration of a Panchayat is 5 years
- If a Panchayat is dissolved early, elections must be held within 6 months
- The new Panchayat serves only for the remainder of the term

- In Lok Sabha and Vidhan Sabha, fresh elections after early dissolution give a full 5-year term; this is different
- if less than 6 months remained, the new body gets a full 5 years; the actual rule is that no election is needed if the remaining period is under 6 months
- Panchayat is a State List subject, not Union List

- Example: if 1 year of the term was left, the new body runs for 1 year only
